Correction for Huntia 8(2):

Because of a printing error, a line of text was deleted from pages 129–130 of the “Lucy Bishop Millington” article. The entire sentence as it should read is: “Fortunately, one would suppose, this spot is known only to a few; but as one of the few who possess the secret is a country boy who uproots these plants and sells them by the dozen [author’s italics] in Lenox and Pittsfield, the time is not distant when the flower will no longer be found in the shadowy silences of her native haunts, but only, robbed of half her charm, languishing in stiff rows along the garden-path.”
